Dear Katherine, I hope this may find you both in your home-- and pretty comfortable. Here it is very hot and the summer is dragging along. Arthur's mother is with us just now having a good rest. Even goes in the water. The children are well but a little restless from the heat. Arthur has a beautiful time abroad but I shall glad when he comes back and we shall all be in Washington once more. Best wishes for both of you. Love,

Mrs. J. Ingersoll
